Historically speaking, this country has been passed between competing kingdoms and empires for millennia, leaving a rich cultural legacy, Roman designs, Venetian palaces, Viennese estates, and Slavic churches. Traveling through Croatia's countryside, encounter caverns, river canyons, waterfalls, and other-worldly stunning lakes. If you are here for the food – you won't be disappointed either. This is truly one of the most amazing primeval forests, featuring 16 terraced lakes, laced together by waterfalls and miles of wooden walkways and bridges. Take advantage of the park's free boat and train rides to get the most out of your visit and enjoy a picnic lunch at one of the park's al fresco dining areas. Our journey continues to the historic port city of Split, Croatia's second-largest city. This bustling city offers a perfect balance between traditional and modern lifestyles. DAY 4

Our morning tour of Split with a local historian starts at the Diocletian's Palace, built in the early 4th century as a retirement estate for the Diocletian, who spared no expense, importing marble from Italy and Greece, and columns and sphinxes from Egypt. Today the palace is a living monument, with residences and colorful shops that started to occupy the ruins of the palace around the 7th century. We arrive at Ston, and Mali Ston, both salt-producing towns. The city's defensive walls are world-famous and second largest in the world after the Great Wall of China. After lunch on your own and time to explore the town, our journey continues to Trsteno Arboretum, the oldest arboretum in this part of the world. It was built in the late 15th century to house plants and seeds brought back from foreign countries by the Gozze family. The aqueduct used for irrigation purposes is still in use today, and the stunning Belvedere Pavilion overlooking the Dalmatian Coast and Adriatic Sea was the gardens of the Red Keep in the Game of Thrones TV series. Enjoy some of the best views of Dubrovnik, overlooking the red-roofed, terracotta skyline. Be enchanted by the city's marble streets, imposing stone walls rising from steep cliffs, churches, monuments and picturesque coves and beaches.
