We continue to the Al Fahidi Fort, housing the Dubai Museum. Board a water taxi, called 'Abra' to cross the lagoon to see the spice market and visit one of Dubai's famous landmarks, the Gold Souk. Land cruisers pick us up at the hotel for an excursion across the desert of Dubai. There are several photo stops during this exciting drive across the dunes. Upon arrival at the campsite, experience the beauty of the Arabian Desert as it was meant to be seen- on the back of a camel! For adrenaline junkies, no trip to Dubai is complete without at least one slide down a sand dune. Take advantage of the opportunity to experience the exhilaration of one of the most popular sports in the desert - sand boarding! If you prefer a more relaxing activity, try Arabic coffee and dates, have your hands or feet painted with henna or try a typical shisha while watching belly dancers perform by starlight after witnessing a magnificent desert sunset. Take the opportunity to enjoy the tranquility of the desert by night. Dubai Desert camping is a unique experience specially designed for nature lovers. LUXURY & ADVENTURE

THE SANDS, SKYSCRAPERS, AND SPLENDORS OF DUBAI

So - what is all the fuss about? Dubai's bold architecture, mighty skylines and its obsession with 'over-the-top' attractions like the tallest building in the world or an indoor ski slope should be enough to convince you - not to mention the fact that the city has a rich culture, rooted in Bedouin heritage and traditions, performances and falconry.

There is so much to learn, see and experience!

LUXURY

Feel pampered during your stay at four and five star hotels with amazing lobbies, pools, bars, restaurants and accommodations.

CUISINE

Indian spices, Levantine specialities, Persian ingredients and the Bedouin lifestyle have all combined to influence the cuisine of Dubai. Its gastronomy is as cosmopolitan as the city's culture. It will be difficult to find a bad meal.

THE MARKETS

Vintage finds or emerging designer pieces, Dubai's markets have it all. From organic produce to vintage pop-ups, to artisan finds and nighttime browsing, Dubai is experiencing a market boom. A number of meeting places have popped up all over the city. Here are some of the most popular markets: Ripe Market (various beach locations across Dubai), The Market (The Beach at JBR), ARTE, The Makers Market (Time Square Centre, Mercato Mall, Oasis Mall), Dubai Flea Market (various locations), Reform Night Market (The Lakes), So Chick Pop-up Vintage Market (Alkerkal Avenue), Farmer's Market on The Terrace (Bay Avenue, Business Bay). You may also enjoy haggling for gold, incense or spices in the bustling souk markets or visit some of Dubai's posh shopping malls.

HISTORY

Looking at the expansive desert city packed with glistening high-rise towers, it is hard to imagine that the city started out as a tiny fishing village. It is thought that Bronze Age nomadic cattle herders were the first to settle here and by the fifth century CE the area we now know as Jumeirah had become a caravan station along the trade route linking Oman to what is now Iraq. The livelihood of the local people was mainly based on fishing, pearl diving, boat building, and providing accommodation and sustenance for the traders who would pass through on their way to sell gold, spices and textiles - the very goods that can be found in the souks today. In 1820, Britain negotiated a maritime truce with local rulers, and the trade routes were opened again. Sheikh Rashid bin Saeed Al Maktoum began the development of Dubai transforming the city from a small cluster of settlements near the Dubai Creek to a modern port city and commercial hub.

LUXURY & ADVENTURE

CULTURE

Dubai is a modern city that welcomes visitors from around the world. Religion plays a significant role in the culture of Dubai. Mosques can be found throughout the city and at sunset the call to prayer can be heard across the rooftops. Courtesy and hospitality are important virtues in the Arab world, and visitors will enjoy the friendliness and warm welcome provided by locals. Visitors should remember that, as Dubai is a Muslim city, a more modest code of behavior is required. You can find more information about Dubai culture and behavior tips on our website.

ARCHITECTURE

Anyone visiting Dubai for the first time can't help but be impressed by the city's skyline. There is Burj Khalifa, standing at just under 830 meters tall. It is not only the tallest building in Dubai, but the tallest on the planet. The rocket ship-like design makes this striking skyscraper look as if it's going to take off any minute. Tom Wright, a British architect, designed the incredible Burj Al Arab (pictured), the fourth tallest hotel in the world. The city's most iconic hotel soars skywards like a huge sail from its private island. Dubai is also filled with historical treasures. During a visit to Heritage Village, and Dubai Museum in the historic Al Fahidi Fort, one can find out about century-old buildings and Dubai's Bedouin and pearl-trading past. At the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding (SMCCU) one can gain a better understanding of Emirati culture and heritage. The Sheikh Saeed Al-Maktoum's House served as residence of the ruling family and Dubai's visionary founder.

ENTERTAINMENT

Dubai sets the stage for world-class events and festivals year-round, from Dubai Music Week to the Emirates Airline Festival of Literature. For a night out on the town, the chic lounges, theatres and live music spaces live up to everyone's expectations. Desert safaris offer endless options from henna painting to dune surfing. A night under the Arabian sky may just be a once-in-a-lifetime experience never to be forgotten.

ACTIVITY LEVEL

LEVEL 2: MODERATE

Please Note:

Travel to and from the tour is not factored into our activity level ratings. You should take into account your stamina when traveling long distances and/or with multiple flight changes. Also, you must be able to handle your luggage independently throughout the itinerary.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

BEFORE YOU GO

HOW DO I BOOK?

Booking your trip is easy! To make your reservation, head to www.aesu.com and click the "CHECK AVAILABILITY" button on any trip page to book your trip online, or you can call us at 1-800-638-7640 if you have any questions.

DO I NEED A PASSPORT? A VISA?

All travelers are required to have a valid passport. If you are an American citizen, the easiest way to get a passport is through your local post office, County Court House, or Passport Agency. Check the United States State Department's website for specific regulations regarding acquiring a passport. (<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports.html>)

Check on Visa requirements with the respective consulate or embassy. Some countries may charge for a tourist visa on entry or a departure tax on leaving the country.

If you are a citizen of another country, you must contact the appropriate consulates for each nation on the itinerary, and you must obtain these visas on your own.

HOW MUCH MONEY WILL I NEED?

We recommend $50-$80 per day, depending on your spending habits. That money covers items of a personal nature, laundry, beverages and meals not included on tour, and expenses for free-time activities (metro tickets, taxis, entrance fees). This amount does not include money for souvenir/gift shopping. We strongly recommend bringing a credit card (Visa, American Express, and Mastercard are the most widely accepted) as well as an ATM card. Check with your bank prior to departure to ensure your ATM card is usable overseas.

HOW MUCH LUGGAGE SHOULD I TAKE?

Due to limited space on the tour motor coach, you may only bring ONE suitcase and ONE carry-on. Limit your suitcase size to no larger than 29 x 20 x 10 and your carry-on to no larger than 8 x 16 x 21. Check your airline's website for any additional luggage restrictions. Keep in mind that throughout the duration of the tour, you are responsible for your own luggage, so do not pack more than you can carry. Laundry facilities are available in major cities.

WHAT SHOULD I PACK?

The easiest way to make your tour stressful is to over pack! See details in the Planning & Packing section on your trip's Toolbox pages. Download our suggested packing list.

WHAT ABOUT PACKING DOCUMENTS?

Never pack your passport! Always keep it with you. The same goes for cash and credit cards. Pack 2 extra passport photos if possible (in the event that you misplace your passport), photo copies of your passport's personal data pages, your flight itinerary and e-ticket information, a listing of your credit card, and copies of any personal IDs. This info will be extremely valuable should you lose any actual documents. Always keep actual documents on your person, and never in your checked suitcase.

SHOULD I PURCHASE TRAVEL INSURANCE?

We highly recommend travel insurance. (Some schools or alumni associations may offer travel insurance to you at a reduced rate.) If not, AESU also offers group travel insurance. Ask our reservations agent for details or click on this link:

<https://www.tripassure.com/main/?welcome=AESU3922MD>

PLANNING YOUR TRIP

WHAT ARE HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS LIKE?

We stay at 4 and 5-star hotels, all with private bath/shower, plus 1 night desert camp accommodations. Our hotels have been especially selected for their atmosphere, friendly hospitality, cleanliness and location.

TOUR ROOMING POLICY: If you are traveling alone and do not want a single room, we will attempt to arrange for a 2-share room. If this is not possible, we will make arrangements for a single room and charge the applicable single supplement.

You'll be furnished a complete hotel address list with your final documents. Properties are subject to change and any substitutions would be the equivalent of those listed. For independent hotel reservations such as pre/post nights, etc., and select special tours a single supplement is always applied. Please check your itinerary.

I DON'T HAVE A ROOMMATE, WHAT DO I DO?

Going solo is not a problem with AESU. Many of our participants don't have a travel companion when booking a trip. If you're traveling alone, we will attempt to arrange for you to share a room (same gender) at no extra cost. (See above rooming policy for details)

I KNOW SOME MEALS ARE INCLUDED, BUT WHAT ABOUT SPECIAL DIETARY NEEDS?

Tours include breakfast daily, lunches & dinner as per itinerary. If you are a vegetarian, or have special dietary needs, please add this to your account when booking. All included meals are pre-paid, so a substitute meal is always up to the goodwill of the establishment. We cannot guarantee that all special requests will be granted, but, in the past, most restaurants have been cooperative. Please keep in mind that substitute meals may not be as varied as they are at home.

DO I NEED ANY VACCINATIONS?

Check with your doctor or the CDC (wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel) to find out if vaccinations are required. If you suffer from any form of illness, be sure to have an adequate supply of medicines before departing on your trip. You must advise us of any important medical condition you may have, before departure.

DOES AESU SUPPORT ECO TRAVEL?

Every traveler shares a common responsibility to preserve our planet's environment and respect its people. AESU enthusiastically endorses ASTA's 10 Commandments, which effectively reaffirm that responsibility. Let's live by these Commandments, to ensure our world's beauty is preserved for our generation and for generations to come. Thank you for the opportunity to travel together and to discover our remarkable world in a responsible manner. Over a decade ago AESU founded "TRAVEL FOR GOOD" – many years before large travel companies became active in environmental travel.
