Take home memories of bustling markets, breathtaking temples, and unforgettable experiences along the Mekong and beyond. The rest of us continue with a flight to Hanoi, the bustling capital of Vietnam. Upon arrival, our local guide leads us straight into the heart of the city. Start at Ba Dinh Square, where the most solemn ceremonies unfold, and glimpse the iconic Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum from the outside — a place of deep respect and history. Nearby, the unique One-Pillar Pagoda rises delicately from its single stone pillar, a symbol of harmony and ingenuity dating back to 1049. Then, hop on a traditional “cyclo” to weave through Hanoi’s famous 36 Streets, a labyrinth of narrow alleys and shop houses, each street historically named for the goods sold there — from fabrics to crafts to herbal medicines. From there, we make our way to Tran Quoc Pagoda, floating peacefully on West Lake like something from a postcard, before stepping into the Temple of Literature — Vietnam’s first university. After lunch, things take a darker turn at Hoa Lo Prison, aka the “Hanoi Hilton,” a gritty window into Vietnam’s wartime past. We wrap it up at St. Joseph’s Cathedral, a French-built Gothic church that looks like Notre Dame’s stylish younger cousin — the perfect spot to snap a few golden-hour shots before hunting down happy hour.
